

Been There... Done THAT*?

Let your imagination whisk you away to THaT* Furniture Store. Mike and Dianne Ringer have the affordable "personality" pieces that make your home truly yours. What fun it is to have the perfect piece find you as you enjoy wandering throughout the store. Yes, you'll actually "know it when you see it!" Stroll through the roomy new location and be prepared to see the atypical pieces that blend your imagination with reality at 50-80 percent off retail prices.

Dreams and wishes come true with attractively priced overstocks, showroom samples, irregulars and scratch and dent pieces. From "just the right touch" or accent to the attractive and basic pieces that say, "Welcome to my home," the Ringers use their imaginations when stocking their store.

Often customers visit weekly "to see what is new" as inventory changes fast. Many one-of-a-kind items increase the thrill-of-the-hunt for the ideal piece. They aren't "perfect," but welcome your imagination and let it flow freely as you shop. The best ideas come from customers...come in and they'll imagine with you!
